PUBLISHERS' PREFACE

The cordial appreciation accorded parts 1 and 2 of Towner's Male Choir and the popular demand for a more comprehensive volume of praise for male voices has induced author and publisher to issue the present volume, believing it to be a most helpful accessory in the service of praise, more especially for Y. M. C. A., Y. P. S. C. E. and Evangelistic meetings.

In its convenient pocket size it will, we confidently expect, occupy a large field of usefulness.

And clad in the flesh from their cav - erns of gloom,
The is - sues of life and the fate of the soul,
Shall each to his pris - on e - ter - nal de - scend?
Or far from the smile and the joy of the Lord?
Shall is - sue at last, all the chil - dren of men?
Its sad con-dem - na - tion; its por - tion of woe?
Will you, oh, will you in their mis - er - y share?
O sin - ner, de - cide it, de - cide it to - night.

HE REDEEMED ME.

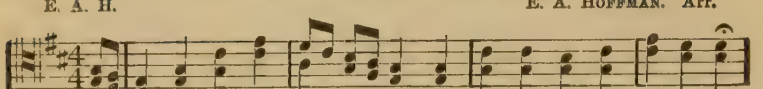
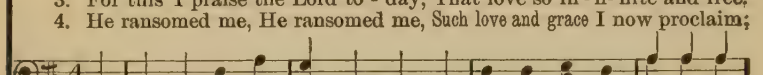
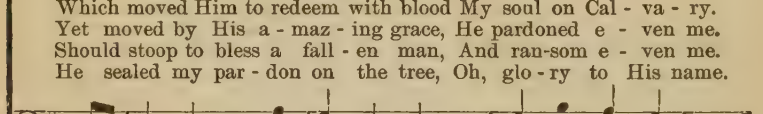
E. A. H. E. A. HOFFMAN. Arr.



1. I praise the wondrous love of God, The wondrous love of God to me,
2. I had no mer - it of my own, My need I made my on - ly plea,
3. For this I praise the Lord to - day, That love so in - fi - nite and free.
4. He ransomed me, He ransomed me, Such love and grace I now proclaim;

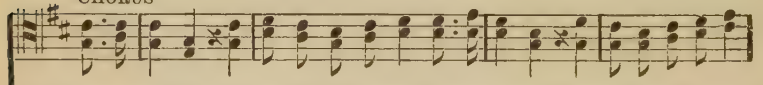


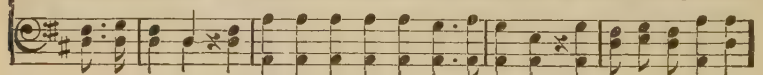
Which moved Him to redeem with blood My soul on Cal - va - ry.
Yet moved by His a - maz - ing grace, He pardoned e - ven me.
Should stoop to bless a fall - en man, And ran-som e - ven me.
He sealed my par - don on the tree, Oh, glo - ry to His name.



CHORUS

He redeemed me, Oh, glory to His name! He redeemed me, His grace I will proclaim,





For His love and grace are evermore the same, Hal-le-lu-jah to His name!
